
in keeping with the warm spring weather, we contribute the following heated article: joe finnegan anncunces the addition of bruce longtin, erstwhile chem. prof, to the fire protection engineering department . . . herr carpenter, not appreciating an answer to roll call in fluent deutsch, was apologized to by the senior chems via tokyo. one of them remarked: "so solly!" . . . not only is the economy of operation of a motorcycle a deciding factor these days, but when you get water in the "inards" you can have your friends push you a few blocks. ask the fellow who owns one around here . . .

* * * *

eavesdropping on pat columbo, we heard him discussing the hot date he had last night. tch! tch!!!! prime customer of the johnson wax co. is skriba, soph chem., who uses gallons of it while apple-polishing. supershine. ditton for janner, jr. juicer . . . as the hackneyed expression goes, "it all comes out in the wash." titan-haired herman tauchau, has made a momentuous decision. herman recently decided that he would have some fun during his last year in college and is now associating with women, contrary to his former plan of living. this plan now gives balance to the mode of living of the senior civils, since sundstrom and huxhold are studying, just for laughs . . .

* * * *

on scanning the ballots cast in the "most luscious legs contest" in the integral office, it is evident that pete zemaitis likes solid foundations . . . military science and tictacs, iit style, has added a new strategem in its repertoire, i.e., the newest mode of attack is to throw chalk at the classroom light globe, shattering the globe, and thereby showering silica shrapnel upon your opponent's head. such warfare was practiced last week in chapin; with the result that one contestant wound up in st. luke's hospital for the stitch in time. harry burkhart, frosh juicer, claims he can't do any home work over the weekend since he has to entertain his brother's girl friend from the gold coast, peggy . . .

* * * *

what kind of food is served at the phi kap house? dick huber's stomach is now uncontrollable, it wheezes, heaves, shimmys and vibrates in a manner most amusing . . . dr. sanford meech is the newest member of the k.k.k. (kraut klip kult) . . . the civils remembered the raid the junior chems engineered on their cider barrel last fall. last week they begged the mad chems to stay away from their refreshments for the recent a.s.c.e. dance . . . now that summer school is here to stay for the juniors, many are planning on doing studying in bathtubs . . .

* * * *

at a recent senior informal, rog mueller made quite a hit with the lasses when he vocalized to the accompaniment of the orchestra . . . artistic devotion ran rampant over the armour campus (??) last thursday night when hasskarl, senior arx, spent the nicht at armour working on the stage for "boy meets girl"—plug . . .

* * * *

ronald lind, frosh chem, went home the other day with a bad case of measles after wrestling with the assembled alpha sig boys . . .

What's Cookin'

by pete mimweger

hmmmmm! he he he ha ha ha hohoho! fun for this week will not be found here, so read on and weep with us. for you sophs we present the following recipe for the best fun of the week. take one freshman and beat well. that is allll for you freshies lill cny sophmoe you can get your hands on! bloodl hehehehahahohol

"say, larry, bring in nudder beer!"

these crazy tech students heheheh