Freshmen asked for criticisms of orientation

Freshmen! Did you suffer through orientation? Here's your chance to tell 'em off! The Student Admissions Advisory board has prepared a questionaire which will be distributed in the near future to all first-semester freshmen.

Asking for forthright criticism of the orientation and registration program, the questionaire is to remain unsigned. This precaution is expected to produce suggestions for the improvement of the present orientation program. The Advisory board will present the suggestions to the Dean of Admissions.
