

TECH OUTPLAYS M'KINLOCK BY 27 TO 18 SCORE

Engineers Vanquish Foes, Game Shows Good Teamwork

The Tech cagemen defeated Northwestern University at the McKinlock Campus at 122nd Field Artillery Saturday afternoon by a score of 27-18 in a game that saw the score always close but without any doubt of Armour's superiority.

From the middle of the first half when Augustine dribbled through for a basket, until Robin sank a short shot just before the final gun, the Tech five held the advantage. At half time the Engineers held the long end of a 10-8 score. A counter attack during the second half by Manz, Simpson and Augustine again increased the Tech advantage, which never again was threatened.

Many Personals Made

Individual stars were lacking and many personals were made by the basketesters. Boyer and Kuehnert of N. U. and Rutkowski and Goodheart were forced to leave the game for undue roughness. The leave of the two Purple basketesters forced N. U. to play with four men in the final minutes of the game.

First Half Close

Armour started the scoring when Rutkowski sank a long shot which was followed by an under-the-basket shot by Cook tying the score. With the score 5-5 Boyer sank a beauty from the side lines putting N. U. in the lead whereupon Armour peppered the back-board with shots but with no success, Simpson put Armour one point behind with a field goal. Here the Tech's lost the services of Rutkowski who went out on four personals—Goodheart going in. During the closing minutes of the first half Augustine contributed a field goal and a free throw which put Armour in the lead 10-8.

At the opening of the second half Goodheart made good on two free throws. Moffie scored a two pointer for N. U. and Simpson and Augustine followed with a field goal and a free throw respectively.

Later Armour acquired a lead of 22-14 on some pretty passwork involving Rossing and Simpson with Manz scoring a field goal and Augustine dribbling the length of the Gunmen Arrange Fray With Crane Tech, 3 P.M.

The Armour Rifle Team will attempt to uphold their marksmanship honors at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the 124th Regiment Armory in a match against Crane Tech. Since the opposing team rated very highly last year in the Hearst Trophy shoot, a victory from Crane would be very encouraging to the Rifle Club in bringing their share of the glory to Armour.

The Club has also been fortunate in securing a postal rifle match with a team composed of marksmanship enthusiasts who are members of the New York Stock Exchange. This match will be held some time next week.

On Saturday, Feb. 16, the team will shoot a shoulder-to-shoulder match with Culver Military Academy cadets. The team will be guests of the Academy for the day.

cidently, Hendricks was high point man for the winners with ten units to his credit.

Ernie Michelson of the Rho Delta Rho team finished with nine points chalked on his board. It was his basket in the last minute of the first overtime period that threw the game into a second extension of time.

Larkin, Wilson, Smith, Hurley, Hendricks, Winkler, and Williams made up the winning team, while Michelson, Bosches, Ackerman, Klein, Coopermann, and Cannell comprised the scrappy losers. The contest was one of the most exciting basketball games ever waged on the gymnasium floor.

THETA XI BEATS DELTA TAU DELTA

The second game, while not as hair-raising as the first, offered plenty of excitement with not a single moment in it that could really be called dull. Theta Xi won the game from the Delta Tau Delta aggregation, the score being 21-13.

Rowley of the T. X.'s scored four baskets against three shots through the hoop by Barber of the Deltas.

Fee, Pillatte, Serson, Shirmer, and Rowley comprised the winning five, their enemies consisting of these Deltas: Stempel, Barber, Malm, Brennan, Holin, and Baldwin.

The S. K. D.'s will offer the next encounter for the Phi Kaps, and the far-famed Phi Pi athletes will meet the Theta Xi five. Both these games are scheduled for Monday, Jan. 21.

floor for a short shot.

Tech Superior in All Angles of Game

Kuehnert reduced the Tech lead by scoring 3 points for N. U. but went out on 4 personals. In the closing minutes of the game Armour gained a more sizeable margin when Simpson and Robin broke through for short shots.

Armour proved superior in all angles of the game—especially being effective from the free throw line while N. U. missed one throw after another. Moffie proved to be the best performer for N. U. playing guard and scoring 6 points. Box score:

North Central Hands Tech Bad End; 36-29

A closely contested basketball game with North Central College, ending in a 36-29 loss for Armour Tech, opened the team's 1929 athletic program. The game was played on the opponents' floor, which partly accounts for the final unfavorable result for the local basketesters.

North Central Band Plays

The gayly uniformed 20-piece band of N. C. College led a large crowd of rooters in lending moral aid to the enemy five. The crowd hilariously welcomed the victory with a wild display of yells.

Armour Late in Scoring

The score after the first quarter stood 15-2 in favor of N. C., since it took all that time for the Armour quintet to become accustomed to the narrow floor and dark backgrounds. Late in the half, A. I. T., started to crawl up by virtue of neat shots from Manz and Augustine, and two from King Simpson. The half ended 19-10, favor North Central.

Second Half More Exciting

The second half indicated that Armour had found itself. Simpson continued to star with four more ringers while Rossing and Carlson showed some neat playing. Manz at the forward position proved himself a capable captain by his expert direction of the game. Robin shared the spotlight with a few flashy plays. Goodheart, playing his first varsity game, was in excellent form, and should

Phi Kappas Trounce Campus Club, 30 to 4

Phi Kappa Sigma basketball team gave the Campus Club their second defeat of the season last Thursday. The affair was very one-sided, the Phi Kaps leading by a score of 15 to 0 at the end of the half and 30 to 4 at the close of the game.

Hurley and Hendricks led the assault while Kovarick and Juergensen did their best to stem the attack.

Which came first— the Hen or the egg?

After long and profound research, the senior scientist announced, "Gentlemen, we might as well conclude this inquiry. I have just discovered that this is a duck's egg!"

There's another futile argument, too, that might as well be cut short. That is, whether mildness or taste comes first in the choice of a cigarette. The answer should be easy, for while merely mild cigarettes are as numerous (and as undistinguished) as taxicabs, the cigarettes that can deliver richness, flavor and hearty relish are so few that you can count them on one finger.

North that Chesterfields aren't mild, too. Smooth tobaccos smoothly blended make them so. And these same tobaccos give up all their spice and mellowness to one full, perfect flavor. It is this, and this alone, that satisfies!
