

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Politico Radio

Hear the things you can't see in TN. Irrepressible little Davey Daruszka brings you music with a message. Tuesdays 3:30 to 6 pm on WIIT, 640 am and 88.9 fm.

Movie of the Week

"Far From the Madding Crowd" — A brilliant and memorable movie to be presented by Union Board 8 pm Saturday.

Another Tech First

A Science Fiction writing course, believed to be the first ever offered for credit during a regular school year, is being assembled for next semester. The catalogue number will be English 326 (a Humanities elective). The course will be conducted in seminar form, with students preparing final drafts of Science Fiction short stories for their term paper projects. Professional writers and editors in the SF field will appear as guest lecturers. Enrollment is by the instructor's consent. For information, contact Dr. Leon E. Stover, 174 Life Sciences, or in 111 LS at 5 pm, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Pete Seeger in Concert

The Non-Violent Training and Action Center is sponsoring Pete Seeger in a concert to be held on Sunday, November 14, at 7 pm in St. James Cathedral on Huron and Wabash. Tickets for the concert are $5 and $3; a few tickets are left but call immediately, at 922-8234.

National Defense Loan

Students desiring to continue or cancel their National Defense Loans must come to the Bursar's office Nov. 15-18. Your signature will be required.

Jacki, Judi, and the Beatles in a Sound Orgy

Yes, those two WIIT lovelies are back with your fave Beatle tunes. Tune 'em in on Nov. 21 from 2 pm to 3:30, Radio Station WIIT, 640 am, 88.9 fm, good tunes in Chicago.

Why Let Them Screw You Without Warning?

Here's your chance to do something. Help the ATS Rules Committee compile the rules, regulations, and policies of the Institute. If they have them, we might as well know what they are. If you know of any, let us know. If you have time to help us, do so. We meet every Tuesday at 9 pm at the AEPi House. Typists (volunteers—we have no money) are particularly needed. For more info, contact Harry Heifetz at ext. 460.

Be Sensible. Be Sensitive.

Interested in a sensitivity weekend for IIT students and their friends? See the article on page 4 for information.

UNICEF

Calendars, Christmas cards and other gift items offered by the United Nations UNICEF fund are available on campus through either Inid Roth, 906 Cunningham Hall, or Usha Wasan, 907 Cunningham. Stop by during the afternoon or early evening, especially between 1-3 and 7:30-9, sometime within the next month and it will be much appreciated.

Beer Blast

The best Union Board Beer Blast in years is only one week from today, Friday, Nov. 19, at 8 pm. The event has stirred up so much enthusiasm at nearby girls' colleges that cars are desperately needed to transport these babes. If you can drive, contact Bob Wagner at 842-1751. Drivers will be admitted free, everyone else only $1.50. The place is still Logan Square, 2451 N. Kedzie, the beer is still Budweiser, and the music is still pulsating, hard driving, father-mucking rock, provided by the almighty ROSELAND.

College of Complexes

Nov. 13th Father Andrew Greeley, director of the Study of American Pluralism at the University of Chicago, will speak at the St. Regis Cafe, 1055 W.

Pregnant? Need Help?

We will help any woman regardless of race, religion, age or financial status. We do not moralize, but merely help women obtain qualified Doctors for abortions, if this is what they desire. Please do not delay, an early abortion is more simple and less costly, and can be performed on an out patient basis.
