

TECH TRACKSTERS CONQUER LOYOLA BY TAKING RELAY

Chicago "B" Team Also Defeated in Hard Schedule

NORTH CENTRAL NEXT!

Coming from behind, the Armour trackmen overcame Loyola's early lead and won the meet last Saturday by winning the relay, the last event. In spite of adverse conditions such as the fact that this was the first meet away from home, and the Loyola gym having a board track, the Tech squad turned in some reputable performances. The best of these was the final event, the relay, in which the Tech veterans, Roberts, Nelson, Kreuzkamp and Captain Sademan came through after a hard fight, with a victory. The only blemish occurred when the Loyola anchor man tripped and fell twenty yards before the finish line, just as Sademan was passing him up.

Victory Number Two

The Armour Tech track team decisively defeated the Chicago "B" tracksters 56-39 at the University of Chicago field house last Tuesday afternoon, for their second victory of the season. The Tech men went into a commanding lead from the first and were never headed. Eight first, three second, and seven third places were captured for a grand total of 56 points. George Nelson was high point man for Armour winning first places in the broad jump and low hurdles, a tie for first in the high jump, a third in the 70 yd. high hurdles, and was on the winning relay team for a total of 15 1/2 points. Captain Sademan, who garnered 11 1/2 points with two firsts and was a member of the winning relay team, took second honors. Another Armour man, Roberts, was third in scoring with 10 points.

Armour Boxing Team Ties West Side "Y"

The Armour boxers and the team from the West Side Y.M.C.A. battled to a 4-4 tie last Friday evening at the West Side "Y" gymnasium. Since all the matches were three rounds in length, a decision had to be reached by the three judges at the end of the third round. No extra rounds were fought if a bout was close.

Hella Wins First Bout of Meet

After a preliminary grudge fight between two boys from the "Y," Hella drew the first blood of the evening for Armour when he was awarded a decision over MacIntosh in the 110 pound division. MacIntosh led off in the first two rounds by taking the offensive. In the third round, Hella rallied and forced the tiring MacIntosh to assume defensive tactics. Hella was awarded the decision at the end of the fight.

Bacci Wins on K. O.

The second bout resulted in the only knockout of the evening. Bacci, of Armour, in an 135 pound encounter, so badly cut the nose of the west side fighter, Sullivan, that the latter was forced from the ring in the third round for repairs. The bout was recorded as a technical knockout for Bacci.

Armour's first loss came when Schaville was defeated by Terricina of the "Y" in a close bout. A sport by Terricina in the last round forced the Armour man to the floor for a count of five, after which Schaville gamely fought until the end of the frame, when Terricina was proclaimed victor.

Breh Gets Decision

In three rounds of fast punching in the 140 pound division, Breh of Armour showed his superiority over Alberri of the West Side "Y." In rounds one and two Breh landed telling blows to Alberri's face and mid-section.

In the fifth bout, at 145 pounds, Namas set back Norris of Armour, with a decision for West Side "Y." After a fairly even primary round, the judges decided that Namas out-pointed Norris in the succeeding periods.

Number Four Won by Marcus

Marcus of Armour, pitted against Solomon of the West Side "Y," had difficulty in finding his opponent's head in the first round. However, in the final round, Marcus convinced the judges that he was the better man by staging a rally that won a decision for him.

MacDonald Loses Close Fight

In the seventh engagement of the evening, at 150 pounds, Captain MacDonald of Armour was ruled second to Strand of the "Y." MacDonald held his own in the first round, but receded before Strand's offense in the second round. The Armour captain rallied and took the offensive during the third round, but the final decision was against him.

Armour lost the final bout of the evening when Babcock lost to Sperling, in a close-fought match at 175 pounds.

LATE SPORTS

Milwaukee:—The Milwaukee State Teachers swimming team defeated Armour Tech last Saturday by a score of 41 to 34. All events were closely contested. Captain Carlstrom led the Tech scoring.

Basketball Team Wins Again

After a hard tussle with the Michigan State Normal quintet, Friday evening, the basketballers returned Saturday night and defeated the Northern Illinois College of Optometry in a game at the Y College gym. After leading at the half, 24 to 12, the Tech men tired, but stayed out in front and won by a 35 to 33 score. Pflum and Beemsterboer were high for Armour.

Armour Tankmen Defeated 45-31

The Armour Tech swimmers were victims of Michigan State College by a 45-31 score. The meet took place Saturday, February 11 at Bartlett gym and offered a contest that was much closer than the score indicated.

Relay Team Nosed Out

The first event of the meet was the 160 yard relay when a very close decision, on what could easily have been called a dead heat, was given to the Michigan State boys. Carlstrom and Montgomery, the anchor men of the teams, swam neck and neck to the finish. This event was followed by the breast stroke in which two Armour men came in ahead of the Michigan swimmers. Knaus came in first and Kolve took second place. The Armour swimmers showed a marked superiority in this event.

40 Yd. Free Style Is Close Contest

Another heartbreaker for Armour followed when Montgomery of Michigan State was given the decision over Captain Roy Carlstrom in the 40 yard free style swim. This was another close decision that was awarded to Michigan State and brought forth a great deal of disappointment among the Armour Tech rooters. Armour recovered and won first and third in the 100 yd. free style: Carlstrom coming in first and LaForce third.

Meets that were to be held against Crane Junior College and Chicago Normal College were postponed.

In the near future Armour will be matched against the swimmers from Northwestern, Loyola, Illinois Wesleyan, and Milwaukee State Teachers. The Techmen have met and defeated Northwestern "B" and Illinois Wesleyan earlier in the season. Armour will also meet Loyola in a home and home engagement.

ILLUSION:

Joan, the lovely trapeze artist, stands upon a small platform. At the will of the magician she leaps twenty feet into the air to reach her trapeze. She uses no ropes, no ladders! A phenomenal leap for a woman... or a man!

EXPLANATION:

Joan didn't jump... she was springed! The twenty-foot leap is not dependent on Joan's ability, but on a powerful spring mechanism hidden beneath the stage which propels the artist upward through the air. The force is so violent that the lady wears a light steel jacket which protects her from injury as she starts her astonishing leap.

It's FUN TO BE FOOLED ... IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW

Magic has its place...but not in cigarette advertising.

Consider the illusion that there is a mysterious way to give cigarettes a superior "flavor."

EXPLANATION: Cigarette flavor can be controlled by adding artificial flavorings. By blending. And by the quality of tobaccos used.

Cheap, raw tobaccos can be "built up" or "fortified" by the lavish use of artificial flavorings.

Such magic, however, seldom holds the audience. Your taste finally tells you the truth.

The cigarette flavor that never stales, never varies, never loses its fresh appeal, comes from mild, ripe, fragrant, more expensive tobaccos...blended to bring out the full, round flavor of each type of leaf. It's the quality of the tobacco that counts!

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Because Camel actually pays millions more every year for choice tobaccos, you find in Camels an appealing mildness, a better flavor.

And Camels taste cooler because the welded Humidor Pack of three-ply, MOISTURE-PROOF cellophane keeps them fresh.
