RECORD BROKEN

Armour inaugurated its outdoor track season by defeating Elmhurst College last Saturday afternoon at Stagg Feld. The most spectacular event of the meet was in the hundred yard high hundles when Roberts, of Armour, broke the existing Armour record by four tenths of a second. Armour inaugurated its outdoor a second.

Dreusicke, Elmhurst's star, was high point man of the meet, wining each of the three events he partici-

The shot put was won by Prateschi, with Roberts and Kulpak a close second and third. Although the Armour trackmen did not show much enthusiasm in the high jump, they easily took all three places from the langinal Elmhurst men. The even was won by Bejeck with Nelson second. Dreusicke, of Elmhurst, won the broad jump with a record lean of 22 feet 234 inches. Emmurst, win the flow of 22 feet 2% inches. Armour again outclassed the Elmhurst field men in the pole vault by copping all of the places. The best jump, 11 feet, was made by Concolino.

The 220 yard dash looked like a victory for Captain Nelson, but he lost ground and could not recover in time. The event was won by Dreu-sicke, of Elmhurst, with Neal, of Armour second.

The 100 yard dash was a closely fought battle between Neal and Carroll of Armour, and Dreusicke, of the Elmhurst squad. However, the fleet Elmhurst star summoned forth an additional burst of speed which
