De Kalb's ballmen avenged their previous defeat from Armour when they trimmed the Techawks 7 to 6 at Ogden Field last Tuesday. The Armour nine took an early lead of 4 to 1 at the end of the second, but fell behind in the ninth when Derrango smashed a triple into left field.

"Potsy" Pococha hurried for Armour until he was relieved by Kruse in the eighth.

Kruse, Wagner Drive in Runs
In the first inning, Grove of De Kalb walloped a beautiful double into deep center and scored on Derrango's single. Upon retiring the side, the Armour team retaliated with a pair of runs by Logullo and Wagner, who landed on base and streaked home on Kruse's single.

Three up and three down squelched the Teachers' possibilities of scoring in the second, while Wagner of Armour drove in two more runs with his single over third. The third inning was a bad one for Pococha, who was taken for four runs.

Four Hits Are Bunched
The rally was started by Grove, who singled to left, and continued by Ritzman who singled also. With two men on Young clouted a fast ball for a beautiful double, scoring two runs. Lewis' single to right accounted for the other two runs.

Following this onslaught the Techawks scored one run on Pococha's single to right on which Kruse crossed the plate. De Kalb was in position to score in the fourth but a quick throw by Pococha caught Bielawski napping at third.

Armour Muffs Chance
With two men on and no outs, the Armour nine muffed a perfect chance to score in the seventh, which they again repeated in the eighth. With men on first and second, Gebel struck out and Logullo popped. Dunne retired the side by watching three strikes go by. In the eighth Wagner singled and Seidenberg, spark plug of the team, beat out a beautiful bunt for a hit. Both failed to score as Shewchuk, badly off form, fanned at three bad pitches.

Derrango accounted for De Kalb's winning run by smashing a terrific triple over third on which he later scored. The last of the ninth found Logullo credited with a single after Green and Roche struck out. With the tying run on second, Dunne was thrown out at first on a weak infield grounder leaving Logullo holding the bag at second.

Loyola Court Battle Tangles Netmen 6-1

Lashing their racquets against heavy competition, the Tech netmen fell before a super squad from Loyola last Thursday afternoon, 6-1. Kubik took the tally for Armour by trimming Swafford in the singles matches, 6-3, 6-2.

Swanson showed some pep in his set when he took Loyola's number one man, Beresky, 6-3, but weakened in the last two. Likewise, Natinchek and Swanson opened their doubles match with a 6-3 win, but yielded chiefly to the all year practice of their opponents.

Natinchek and Boehme lost respectively to DuBay and Lynch in two straight sets each. Hrubby rallied over Charlton of Armour, cinching a victory with two straight love sets.

frame brought further gloom to the seniors when the sophs got four runs, two of which came in when Carpenter hit a homer with Cultra on base. In the third, Carpenter duplicated his second inning feat by again hitting a four-bagger with Cultra on base.

It was not until the fifth inning that the seniors gathered in any runs. Then, with a combination of hits and errors, they placed men on base and pushed two of them across the plate. In the seventh Delve hit a long one for the seniors, to score another man and himself. The last inning saw both teams go down in order.

Junior F.P.E.'s Take Second Win
Scoring the winning run in the tenth inning, the junior fire protects turned in a 16-15 victory over the senior firemen last Thursday afternoon. The seniors led off in the first inning and piled up an eight run handicap before the juniors could control their fielding.

Seven runs were split between the teams in the third, and the score stood at 12 to 6 when they faced the fourth. The fatal fourth saw the juniors chalk up a big seven, to take a 13 to 12 lead. Two more in the fifth increased their, but in the ninth the seniors tied the score.

No score was made until the last of the tenth, when Beardley beat out a hit to deep short, took a long lead, and scored the winner on Dunbar's long drive past the centerfielder.

Frosh Win 7-4
Aided by the poor fielding of the sophs and constant hitting, the frosh "Meteors" handed the soph M.E.'s a 7 to 4 defeat on a rain-soaked field last Friday. The game was ceded to the frosh at the end of the sixth due to unplayable weather conditions.

The sophs started the game off with a bang, smashing out four hits which tallied three runs for their half of the first. Retaliating somewhat, the green cappers scored a run on Lurz's single to left.

With a three run lead the sophs started to weaken, getting only weak hits, save for Hoffman's triple. In the third, the frosh hit their stride, scoring four runs.

Kubicka started off the rally with a homer to right. A pair of singles by Gerwig and Smith raised the tally to four runs before the side was retired. One run in the fourth and another in the fifth put the game on ice before it was finally called.

Golfers Defeat Wabash by 9 1/2-8 1/2

The divoteers opened their season with a close win over Wabash College of Southern Indiana at Southmoor Country club, 9 1/2-8 1/2. Armour was strong in the doubles matches but almost lost the meet in the singles.

Davidson and Sunde started off well by trimming Burke and Ziegwily 3-0. Skuza and Shanahan paired together to edge out Davies 2 1/2-1/2. Sunde, playing good golf beat Ziegwily 2 1/2-1/2. Davies turned the tables by downing Davidson 2 1/2-1/2. Shanahan failed to hit the pill on the nose and dropped his singles match with Burke 2 1/2-1/2. In the final match Skuza ran into trouble and dropped his match to Wieland also 2 1/2-1/2.

Although not an outstanding victory, Coach Bibb prophesies a number of significant victories by the squad before the season's close.

Chess Team Travels; Places In Ohio Meet

On a tour to Cincinnati a week ago last Friday and Saturday, Armour's chess team came through to place third in a field of five college entries. Koehler of the Tech squad was high man of the tourney, out-checking his opponents in every match.

Armour's 10 points were topped by 13 1/2 and 12 1/2 for Wayne and Ohio, respectively. The competition originated from Wayne University, Detroit, and the three buckeye universities, Ohio, Miami, and Cincinnati.

Daring Adventures in Gunnysack War

'Tis spring and the call of high adventure speaks in the sweet scented southern breeze! Many years ago the founders of Armour Institute realized the urge and also the lack of means of fulfillment. An extensive search for a maiden in distress failed miserably, many factors of the picture being missing; neither a glass mountain nor castle tower could be found on which to place the maiden in distress and the entire scheme was abandoned when it was found that Armour students, through long years of promptly falling asleep whenever a lady stood in front of them in a crowded street car, immediately dozed off when a feminine cry for help resounded.

Like Knights of Old
Then! Ah then, was the scintillating idea of The Class Rush born. The novel, the incomparable, Class Rush. What deeds of chivalry of ancient days can compare? Knights charging to battle with steely armor glinting, banners whipping bravely in the breeze, or slaying monsters having the unique property of exhaling fire and so constituted that the number of heads grown was directly proportional to the square of the number of heads cut off—these deeds dim and grow lacklustre alongside the feat of carrying a sand-loaded gunny sack from its position in the center of the field to the opposing goal while the objections voiced by other people are rudely and violently enforced.

How Sweet Is Victory, Frosh!
According to ancient and honorable tradition the freshmen will defend the southern goal, the sophs the northern, while in the center repose the objects of mutual desire. Unprepossessing in physical appearance to the laymen are these objects, but to the eyes of the competitors they are of more worth than the sweetest per-they are really—as Mr. Winchell would say—"that way about each other." Sydney Miner and Herman Ross, both climaxed four years of active work with the Players, Michael Pantone, Richard Weissman. Albert Schrieber and Helene Iarussi are all well known to the Armour playgoers.

One of the more promising of the newer members of the Players, Bernard Sternfeld, adds a cold and sinister atmosphere to the play as the cruel murderous Trock Estrella while his compatriot the "gun slinging" Shadow is ably done by William Miller. Joseph Mashman, as Lucia, the Italian organ-grinder, and Robert Hanneman as the Hobo adds the light touches of comedy in quite a commendable manner.

The curtain, rising on the first act, will reveal a realistic setting of the New York waterfront. Designed and executed by Armour's own architects, Richard Lischer and Joseph Kichard the sets were built under the direct supervision of Joseph Kubert, stage-manager. These boys have been working in a technical capacity with the Players for some time now despite the fact that the glory usually goes only to those who appear personally on stage.

All members of the Players agree unanimously on one point. They give all credit for successful past performance and the hope of success tomorrow night to their director, Prof. Benjamin Fulghum, who in turn "passes the buck" back to the boys themselves.

fumes of Araby. The awards for getting a corner on the bags will be for the freshmen freedom from wearing green caps without a corresponding freedom from wearing pants. Sophomores will have the rather negative award of being able to continue the enforcement of wearing green hats.
