Women clad in evening gowns and young men wearing tuxedos walked to and from a dance at the University of Oklahoma recently when four taxi companies failed to reach an agreement on cab fares. University officials declined to lift the no-car rule until taxicab service was restored.

Dr. L. L. Click of the University of Texas presents the following two reasons why freshmen flunk:

1. Either the freshmen got too scared of their studies.
2. Or they don't get scared enough and go to sleep.

Texas Christian university student pastors travel a total of nearly 25,000 miles each month, preaching from the pulpits of Texas churches.

"Using one's head is difficult at any time especially in the matter of choosing a life partner," says Dr. W. G. Mather Jr., head of the sociology department at Franklin college.

Thirty-three Cornell upper-classmen took over the Hotel Astor for one day, a regular chore in their hotel management course at Ithaca.

One doesn't keep up with the Joneses, at Pennsylvania State college; one tries to keep up with the Millers. A check of the recently issued student directory reveals the fact that there are 27 Joneses in school, 62 Smiths (including one Smyth) and a total of 64 Millers.

In protest against Japan's invasion of China, 500 delegates to the American Student union convention fed silk stockings, lingerie, and neckties to the flames of a bonfire on Vassar college campus recently.

"The educational spoon in America is handled by competent and understanding teachers, but the students should do the feeding themselves," according to Dr. Alexis Carrel, renowned scientist.

Patrick O'Shaughnessy Flynn, a goat belonging to a University of Minnesota sorority, is being sent to his home in Grinnell, Iowa. It's not because Patrick doesn't like his environment, but because his garage has been rented to a car owner.

According to the findings of Dr. Harvey C. Lehman of Ohio university, the best achievements in sports come between the ages of 25 and 30. In other words, a man can't be a champion golfer unless he has a business to neglect.

Within a few years Ohio State will turn out its first class of college-trained "game wardens" to protect the nation's two-billion-dollar wild life resources. Only recently introduced, the course includes classwork, research, and field work.

A member of the University of Delaware physical education staff claims to be the first college instructor to live in a trailer.

A survey taken at the University of Oklahoma shows that women have a more difficult time making up their minds than men. From a group of each sex selected at random, 56 women changed their minds 95 times regarding vocational interests, while 68 men made only 92 changes.

Pennsylvania State college students who cut classes the day before or after a vacation are fined $5.

JACK GREGORY, the titian-haired titan of the electrical department, has finally given up his ambition to become a movie star. "They don't even return my picture any more," complains JACK.

H. QUANDEE tried awfully hard to try and make the fellows believe one of the two photos appearing in his wallet was his mother. Incidentally, she was about the same age as Quan.

After a "weiry" three semesters, Adolph "Hitler" Runc finally managed to write up and finally submit his mech lab report on the weir test.

PROFESSOR BENNY GOODMAN REPEATS HIS COURSE IN SWING-OLGY FOR THE SECOND SEMESTER!

"GIVE!" signals Goodman. And Drummer Gene Krupa "takes it." The famed quartette, which steams out "killer-differs" on the Camel Caravan, consists of: Goodman on the "agony pipe" (clarinet)—Gene Krupa on the "suitcase" (drums)—Teddy Wilson on the "moth box" (piano), and Lionel Hampton on the vibraphone.

BENNY'S "IN THE GROOVE!" Here's the "King of Swing"—Professor Benny Goodman—"kicking out." They "go to town" every Tuesday night. First on the double-feature Camel Caravan comes "Jack Oakie College." Then Benny Goodman's "Swing School." Time—9:30 pm to 10:30 pm E.S.T., over WABC-CBS.

"PUSHERS" getting in a few "licks" (short, original improvisations) on their "gobble-pipes" (saxophones). Benny Goodman and his Swing Band won the title of the most popular band in the country. You just haven't heard "SWING" until you hear Camel's Professor of Swing-ology—Benny Goodman—burn up the ether.

EVERY TUESDAY NIGHT

Radio's big double-feature program, the Camel Caravan—60 fast minutes of fun, frolic, and fanfare. 9:30 pm E.S.T., 8:30 pm C.S.T., 7:30 pm M.S.T., 6:30 pm P.S.T.—WABC-CBS.

"JACK OAKIE COLLEGE"—

The big Camel Caravan leads off with Jack Oakie and his goofy collegians, broadcast direct from Hollywood. All-star cast includes funny-man "Stu" Erwin. Hear "Honest Jack" Oakie—"The Prez"—running a college. You'll never forget it!
