

GLBT History Month Weekly Programs

Featured speaker
SARAH PRAGER

Tuesday, October 21 @ 7 pm
MTCC Auditorium

Best known for the creation of the mobile app Quist, Sarah Prager will talk about her app, LGBTQ history, and the importance of movement-building.

Sign up now for the Campus Life Excellence Awards!

Nominations now being accepted on HawkLink!

Other Upcoming Events...

TransGeneration Episode Screening II

October 22, 12:45 p.m., The Bog

Sponsor: GLBT Services & Campus Life

This will be a follow up episode to the first screening of TransGeneration, though new viewers are also welcome to join. Lunch will be provided.

Conversations at the Crossroads: Intersectionality and the LGBT Community

October 24, 1:00 p.m., MTCC 516

Sponsor: International Center & GLBT Services

Join us for a panel discussion and conversation about the intersections of race, ethnicity, culture and other segments of LGBTQIA identity. Snacks will be provided.

(A)sexual Documentary Screening

October 27, 7:00 p.m., MTCC Auditorium

Sponsor: GLBT Services & Campus Life

Facing a sex obsessed culture, a mountain of stereotypes and misconceptions, and a lack of social or scientific research, asexuals - people who experience no sexual attraction - struggle to claim their identity. Through candid interviews and confessions from members of the asexual community, the documentary challenges existing notions of sexuality and provides a look into a marginalized group striving to have their voice heard.

Campus Life has a number of ticket sales coming up. Check them out here: tinyurl.com/IITticketSales

RSVP here <http://tinyurl.com/IITLeadership2014>

Leadership Summit 2014

October 25

Illinois professional development Chicago teamwork Leadership potential act discover evolve think GLBTQ multicultural educate yourself broaden your horizons intersectionality Learn public speaking change time management globalization listen Illinois Tech Attend sessions on leadership, professional development, and skill building- all hosted right here on campus! Join us in the MTCC on October 25th from 10am-2pm.

Lunch will be provided. Open to all IIT, VanderCook, and Shimer graduate and undergraduate students.

The Bog is now open on Saturdays starting at 5:00 pm!