

And now...a comic!

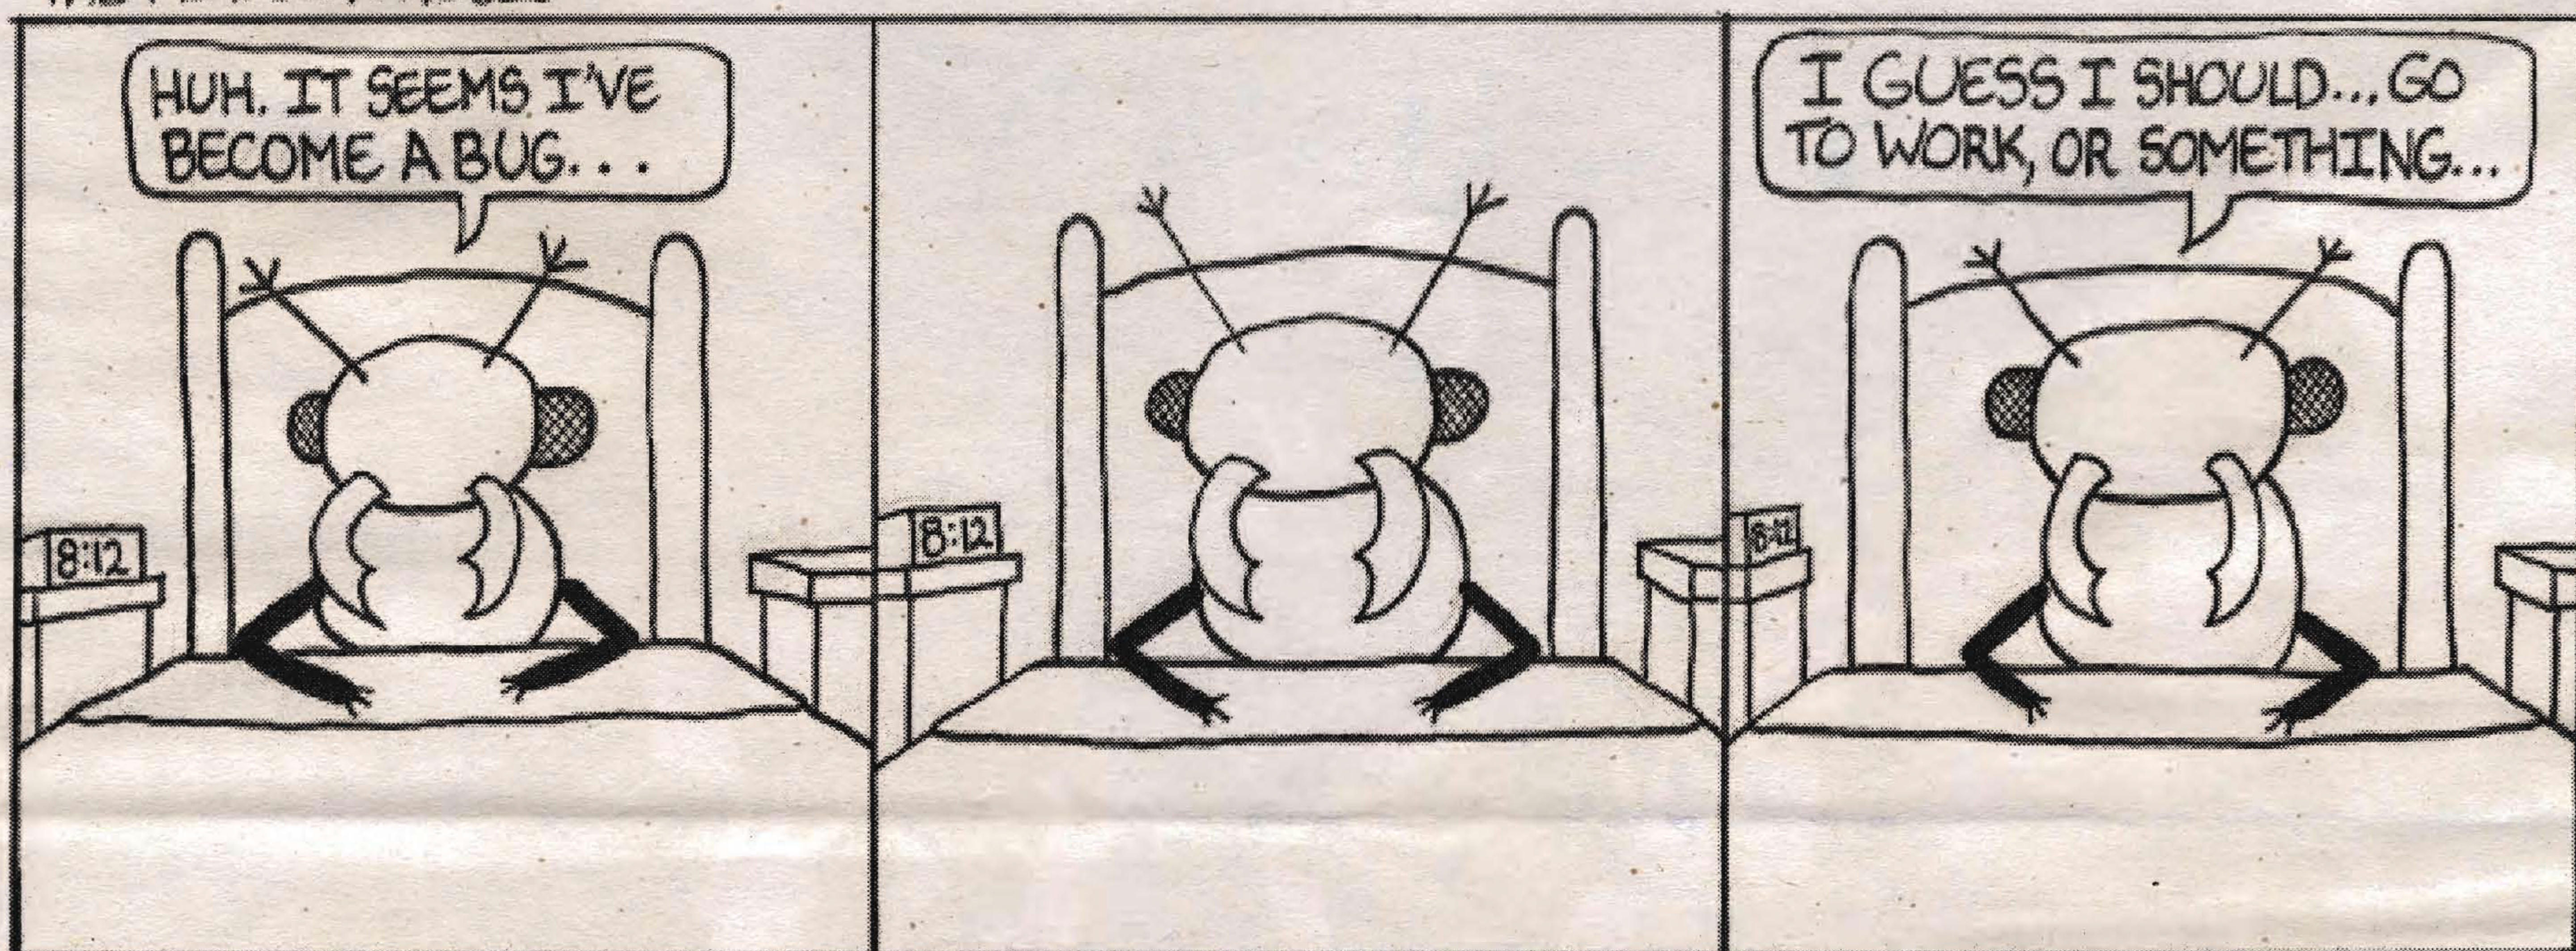

Special April Fool's Edition

Sam Kepp
ART EDITOR

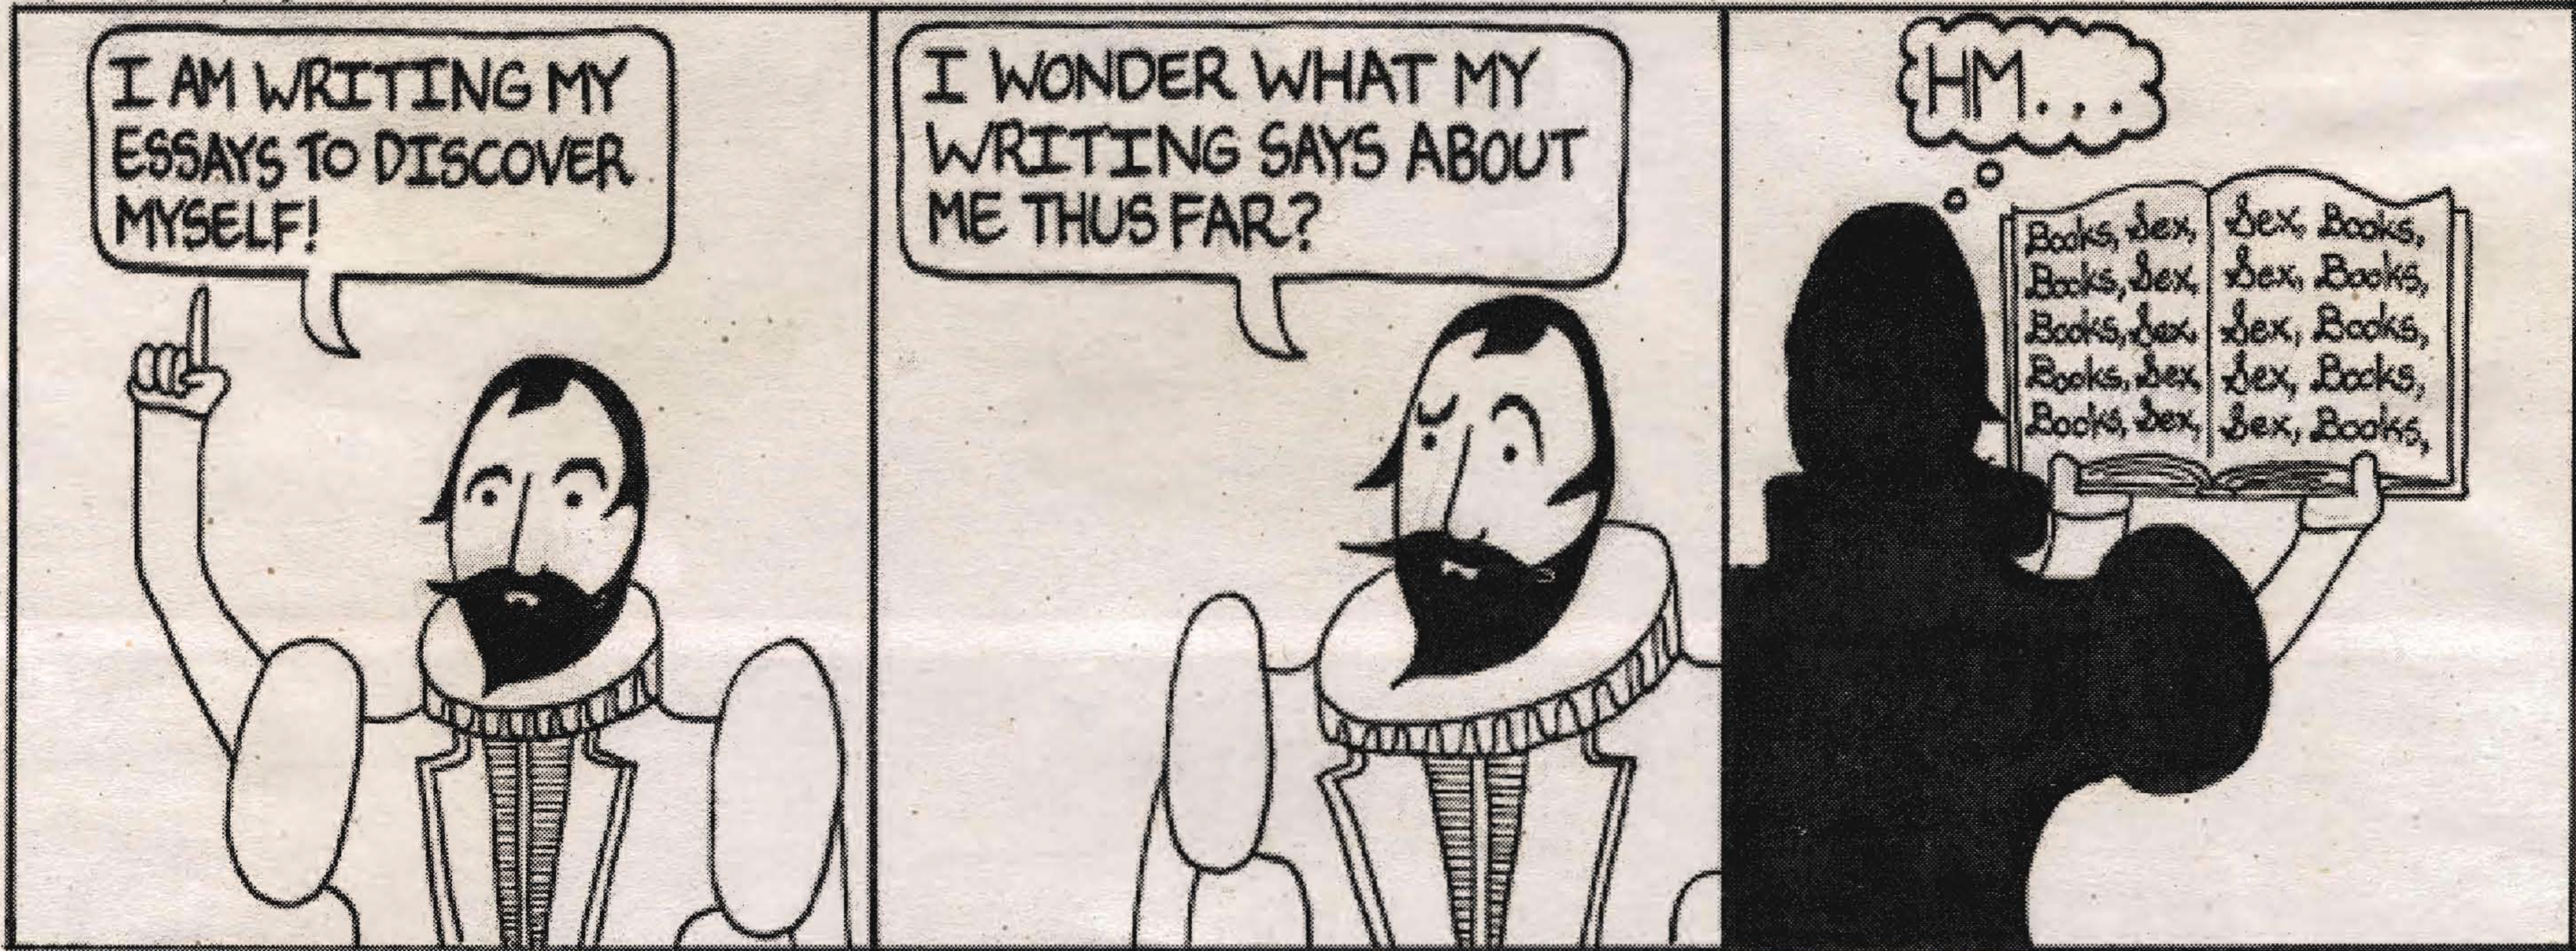

THREE PANEL BOOKS!

by KEPP

THE METAMORPHOSIS

THE ESSAYS OF MONTAIGNE

SPORTS

NATHAN MCMAHON

sports@technewsiiit.com

Gunners falter in Premier League this week

Nathan McMahon
SPORTS EDITOR

Another fantastic week of results in the Barclay's Premier League has the title race tightening up at the top. The most impressive performance was by Chelsea as they absolutely battered Arsenal 6-0 at Stamford Bridge. It looked like a training exercise for the Blues, as they scored at will and left Gunners' supporters speechless. Goals from Eden Hazard, Andre Schurrle, Samuel Eto'o, Mohamed Salah, and a double by Oscar have left Chelsea at the top of the table with 69 points.

The Gunners sit in fourth place with 63 points. Liverpool leaped up to second with their 6-3 victory over Cardiff City that exemplified the Red's leaky defense and unstoppable attack.

Suarez netted a hat-trick while Skrtel scored a brace and Daniel Sturridge closing out the scoring. Liverpool now has 65 points with a game in hand over Chelsea. Cardiff continues their relegation battle as they sit with 25 points which is 3 points from safety.

Manchester City is not to be forgotten in this title race as they have two games still in hand after their 5-0 win over Fulham.

Yaya Toure paced the scoring with a hat-trick for City and giving them 66 points with two games in hand. This makes them the clear favorites for the title while Fulham sits clear in last with 24 points. Tottenham, with a 3-2 win over Southampton has kept their Champion's League hopes alive for next season.

Tottenham now has 56 points and Southampton still with an impressive 48 points. Everton is another team with Champion's League aspirations and continue to push to that aspiration in their 3-2 win over Swansea City.

Goals by Leighton Baines, Romelu Lukaku, and Ross Barkley led Everton to their 57 points on the season. The title race will continue to tighten up next week.