

IF-IM All-Stars clash March 11

Top IM cage squad to be fan-picked

The first annual Technology News All-Star Interfraternity-Intramural basketball game has been scheduled for Friday evening, March 11, in the Technology Center gymnasium.

Each team was asked to name three outstanding players to form the initial list from which the final squads would be formed.

In the case of the Intramurals, the fans themselves will further narrow down the list by means of popular vote through Technology News. A Selection must be considered on a team basis, using the blank below. Only names appearing on the official list will be considered. To the owner of the entry most nearly matching the winning starting lineup will go a beautiful new six-tube portable radio.

In the case of the Interfraternity league, however, the team coaches were asked to make the final team selections. Since the Interfraternity games have been played in the evening, and have not attracted enough outside interest, the editors of Technology News felt that it would be more desirable to choose the fraternity All-Stars in this way.

It is pointed out, however, that every member of the student body is eligible to vote for the All-Star intramural squad. Selection of the team will be done on a point valuation. The first five highest vote getters will make up the starting lineups.

The final selection of the teams will be announced in the March 4 issue of Technology News. They will be given a week to work together under their coaches.

The men selected by their respective teams are:

Industrial Joes: Fowler Hall: Frank Simon, Jerry Ajemian, Fred Pidgeon
Soph Maulers: Carl Moeck, Bill Muttera, Wesley Ooms
Neolites: James Piracki, Alfred Sieracki, Joseph Scott
Asps: John S. Peterson, Claude Herriek, John Betti, Whiz Kids, Martin Hoeft, Richard Van Meter, Filthy Five, Jim Lang, Dick Bosticher, Don Bahac, Metallurgists: W. P. Donavan, G. Splice, M. Weissman a top fight arbitrator

Representation of IIT was very much in evidence in the recent Tribune-sponsored Golden Gloves boxing tournament.

Not only were Techmen participating in the bouts, but there was also an IIT man on hand to see that there were no infractions of the Marquis of Queensbury rules. The third man in the ring in many of the bouts was none other than Tech's congenial Bernard "Sonny" Weissman.

Refereeing fights, both professional and amateur, is one of the many activities which keep Mr. Weissman occupied. He has been at it for the last 17 years and is considered one of the most efficient refs in the fight game.

"Sonny" handled the recent Docusen-Dawson fight which was held at the Chicago Stadium and received high commendation from the Chicago newspapers.

Nice going coach!

J. Paul Shеды* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil
Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

WHEN a camel's hair coat company refused Shеды as a gift—he went all to pieces. It was a blow that'd break an ordinary camel's back—but not his! He remembered hearing about the Finger-Nail Test . . . tried it . . . and hot-footed for a bottle of Wildroot Cream-Oil. Now you wouldn't know the old boy! His hair has a snappy, well-groomed look. No more of that old dryness and loose, ugly dandruff! He's the hit of every caravan!

Even if you're not a camel—you, too, should be using non-alcoholic Wildroot Cream-Oil containing Lanolin. You needn't walk a mile for it—your nearest drug store has it in bottles and tubes. And your barber can give you a professional application. Get some today!

them last week. Bob Leiser sparked the anemic Tech attack with six goals and one charity toss for 13 points.

The contest was something of a letdown from the high-class brand of firewagon basketball exhibited in the preceding games with Wayne and Concordia.

Against the powerful Wayne team, Illinois Tech turned in its finest performance of the year forcing the game into an overtime before bowing, 43-41. Dick Hall paced the Waynites to their overtime victory scoring 12 points, while Tech's George Scalamera was high scorer with 19 points.

A few more gray hairs were added to Coach Glancy's thatch when his ragged dropped another "close" to Concordia, 56-53, at River Forest just two days after the Wayne battle.

YOUR TELEPHONE must take hard knocks as they come—and go on working.

To make sure it can, we test samples of each day's production and put telephones through the equivalent of years of service in a few hours or days. For example: we drop handsets into their cradles 22,000 times—equal to 4 years' normal use. And not just once, but from 16 different positions, we drop sample telephones from desk-top height onto a hardwood surface. We even check their feet to be certain they won't scratch your table.

Here at Western Electric, we've been making Bell telephones since 1882. But telephones themselves are only about 6% of the equipment used in your service. The other 94% includes wire, cable, switchboards, trucks, poles, tools, office equipment. With the exception of buildings, we make or supply almost everything Bell telephone people use—and test it with utmost care.

Guarding the quality of things used in your Bell telephone service is one way that Western Electric helps to make it the world's best.
