

THE ARMOUR ENGINEER

- Johnson, R. W. Some practical considerations in the fabrication of steel bridges. 5:59-66.
- Jones, H. W. Chemical control in pharmaceutical manufacturing. 8:58-62.
- Judson, Lieut.-Col. W. V. Engineering and war. 7:135-40.
- Krum, H. L. Morkrum telegraph printer. 7:308-15.
- Laboratory equipment, New. 1:110-12.
- Laboratory instruction in industrial chemistry. Harry McCormack. 1:78-85.
- Lamps, see Electric lamps.
- Lead ores, Roasting and sintering. H. B. Pulsifer. 4:163-92.
- Lee, Morris W. Equipment of reinforced concrete factory buildings. 1:40-51.
- Leininger, Walter G. City pavement maintenance and repair work in Chicago. 7:173-91.
- Leininger, Walter G. Specifications of the Bureau of Street of Chicago. 2:176-96.
- Library, Recent additions. 8:104-7, 278-80.
- Lighting, farm, Engineering in. P. G. Downton. 7:295-300.
- Lighting. Flux of light method of performing illumination calculations. W. E. Barrows, Jr. 4:3-31.
- Logarithmically ruled co-ordinates, Construction and use of. J. M. Spitzglass. 1:123-39.
- Low tension feeder systems for street railways. R. H. Rice. 4:113-23.
- Lundgren, Leonard. The forests of the United States. 7:235-48.
- Lundgren, Leonard. Government rights of way for irrigation. 8:161-6.
- Lundgren, Leonard. A talk on the Philippine Islands. 4:271-84.
- Lundgren, Leonard. Water powers of southeastern Alaska. 8:30-43, 245-57, 358-66.
- McCormack, Harry. Industrial advances in chemistry. Editorial. 6:142-7.
- McCormack, Harry. Laboratory instruction in industrial chemistry. 2:78-85.
- McCormack, Harry. The McMullen process for sugar manufacture. 3:250-8.