

SUPPLEMENT.

- Opportunities for the technical man in public service. F. G. Heuchling. 5:195-213.
- Ores, lead, Roasting and sintering. H. B. Pulsifer. 4:163-92.
- Organization, Factory. Editorial. 6:138-9.
- Orient, Artesian water in. T. S. Ford. 3:56-61.
- Pacyna, Arnold. The waterproofing of concrete. 6:186-202.
- Palaces. Where kings have lived. J. H. Bischof. 5:97-103.
- Panama, Army and civilian methods of handling materials in. S. H. Smith. 8:298-304.
- Passenger elevator. Editorial. C. W. Naylor. 8:183-5.
- Patent system, Some comments on. T. A. Banning, Jr. 7:23-32.
- Patrick, W. W., and Wilsnack, G. C. A new volumetric method for tin. 5:45-50.
- Pavement maintenance and repair work in Chicago. W. G. Leininger. 7:173-91.
- Pavements, bituminous, Systematic inspection of. T. C. Ford. 8:123-9.
- Pavements. Some creosoted wood block pavements in Chicago. W. F. Harvey. 4:215-25.
- Pavements, see also Highway engineering, Roads, Streets.
- Peebles, James Clinton. The elastic limit by temperature measurement. 6:272-6.
- Peebles, James Clinton. The measurement of temperature. 3:70-83.
- Penn, John C. Camp Armour, summer of 1914. 7:269-73.
- Penn, John C. South Kedzie Avenue (Chicago, Ill.) reinforced concrete arch bridge. 2:99-107.
- Perkins, Edmund T. The engineer as a business man. Editorial. 7:318-9.
- Personal system and the constructing engineer. R. M. Henderson. 1:25-39.
- Pharmaceutical manufacturing, Chemical control in. H. W. Jones. 8:58-62.
- Philippine Islands, A talk on. E. L. Lundgren. 4:271-84.
- Phillips, Alfred E. Engineering field practice, Armour Institute of Technology: History of the various encampments. 7:263-8.
- Phillips, Alfred E. Specifications. Editorial. 6:139-41.
- Photography, Color. Editorial. J. E. Snow. 6:225-7.