

NATURE AND I ARE FRIENDS.

Winter and I are friends:
His rushing winds
Are plunging horses for our sky-course wide
From billowy manes fly
snow flakes as we ride Upon my feet his piercing spurs he binds

Summer and I are friends.
her sapphire seas
Chant for my ears, her whispering reeds Sing me to sleep. She takes my hand, she leads To where flow wide the tresses of the trees.

Springtime and I are friends:
here at my feet
She showers her perfumed
wealth of blossoms fair, Pours round about her waves
of humid air, Summons a chorus of bird voices sweet.

Autumn and I are friends:
her calm, great eyes Look deep into my heart, she wraps me round
With robes of royal purple only found
On slopes of sun-smoothed hills and sun-set skies.
