

The Integral Mirror

PROF. RONEY.—(Explaining “the association of ideas.”)—“Higginson, do you understand that?”

HIGGINSON.—“Yes, sir.”

PROF. RONEY.—“Then I think the rest of the class does.”

MR. GEBHART.—“Mr. Tousley, can you give some method of reversing an engine?”

MR. TOUSLEY.—(Electrical.)—“Reverse the steam.”

HARBECK, historian for the Freshman class, is n-n-not in favor of handing in a history of his class for f-fear it would be printed in g-green with c-cu-cumbers for a border.

H. I. C. Athletic Association

No. 71892.—This is to certify that Mr. Benedict Shubart is a member of the Athletic Association and when properly punched will entitle him to all privileges.

---

Kost's	“Real Riders”
	will no more ride
“Tailor Made”	“factory made” wheels
	than swell dressers
Bicycles	will wear “hand-me- down” clothes.
42-44	Don't rack your
E. Congress St.	brain for an argument
Chicago	against this, for there is none.