

"Just because she made them goo-goo eyes."—Miss C. Falter, '01.

"A girl who has so many —ing ways."

—Miss S. A. Weinberg, '01.

"The Institute's Friend."

—Miss Edna Simpson, '01.

The Laziest Junior—Moss. Sketch 1.

As You Like It, - Shakespeare.

As I like it, - Paul.

As Paul likes it, - Ralph.

"Love thyself last."—E. P. Goldsmith, '02

"He was of that stubborn crew."

—L. L. Falk, '02.

The Sophomore Boat-Ride." Sketch 2

"Upon my word, sir, She is without an enemy."—Miss Fairlee, '02.

"Innocence is bliss."—Miss M. Wright, '02

"Some of your hurts you have cured,
And the sharpest you still have survived,
But that endless worry you endured
From 'Live Wires' which never arrived."

—Miss H. Miller, '02.

(Whose anxiety about her share in THE INTEGRAL was strikingly evident.)

"Yea, rough house would do me good."

—S. Hancock, '02.

"The boy with the sleepy walk."

—N. Crawford, '02.

Before and After Taking the Y. M. C. A. Sketches 3 and 4.

"Mistress of herself, though China fall."

—Miss E. Hoops, '02.

"Well, what of him, anyhow."

—Dallas, '02.

"With rosy cheeks and curly hair."

—N. Silberberg, '02.

"With curly cheeks and rosy hair."

—L. R. Levings, '02.