

Freshman Banquet

THE annual "Freshman Banquet," as given by the class of 1906, on June the fifth, at the Union Restaurant, was, to say the least, a decided success, but its date is comparatively too remote to permit of more than a general summary being given.

Menu

Celery	Blue Points	Olives
	Consommé
Baked Whitefish, á la Union		Fillet of Beef, Mashed Potatoes
	Head Lettuce, French Dressing
	Ice Cream
Brie	Coffee	Crackers

Toasts

Toastmaster, L. R. LEVINGS

"The Institute," PROF. V. C. ALDERSON

"The Class," CHARLES W. STONE

"The Faculty," PROF. W. T. MCCLEMENT

"Athletics," R. E. JENS

"Student Life," PROF. L. C. MONIN

"Can an Armour Professor Afford to Get Married?" MR. C. W. LEIGH

"Stories I Have Heard," MR. H. C. COFFEEN