

A goat there was and he came to school,
Even as you and I,
He came and stayed, though against the rule,
Not exactly like you and I.
But a Prof. it was who brought him there,
And so, you see, we didn't dare
To kick at him or we'd lose our hair,
Even you and I.

The goat was long and lank and thin,
Even as you and I,
But he butted so hard we let him in,
Even as you and I;
When we had him tight we let him play,
The Prof. kicked hard, but we had our way.
So Riggs' goat has come to stay,
Even as you and I.
