

Jan. 18—Chan flunks in machine design.

Jan. 19—Chan fails to recite in physics.

Jan. 20—An Engineering Society is organized to succeed the old Technical Society. Prof. MacFarland gave a short talk on "The Utilization of Heat Energy in a Power Plant."

Jan. 21—Senior Academy Class go to city to have their picture taken. All, except two or three, enter elevated station through wrong door and cause quite a commotion.

Jan. 22—Senior Academy Class suspended indefinitely, owing to protests of Elevated Road. Radical X hold banquet at Union and entertain new Freshmen members. Some one relieves Jim Crawford of thirty cents and three cigars, maybe.

Jan. 23—"Tech." bowling tournament starts, the Juniors and Seniors both winning their matches. Lewy negotiates 256.

Jan. 25—So cold that nothing happened.

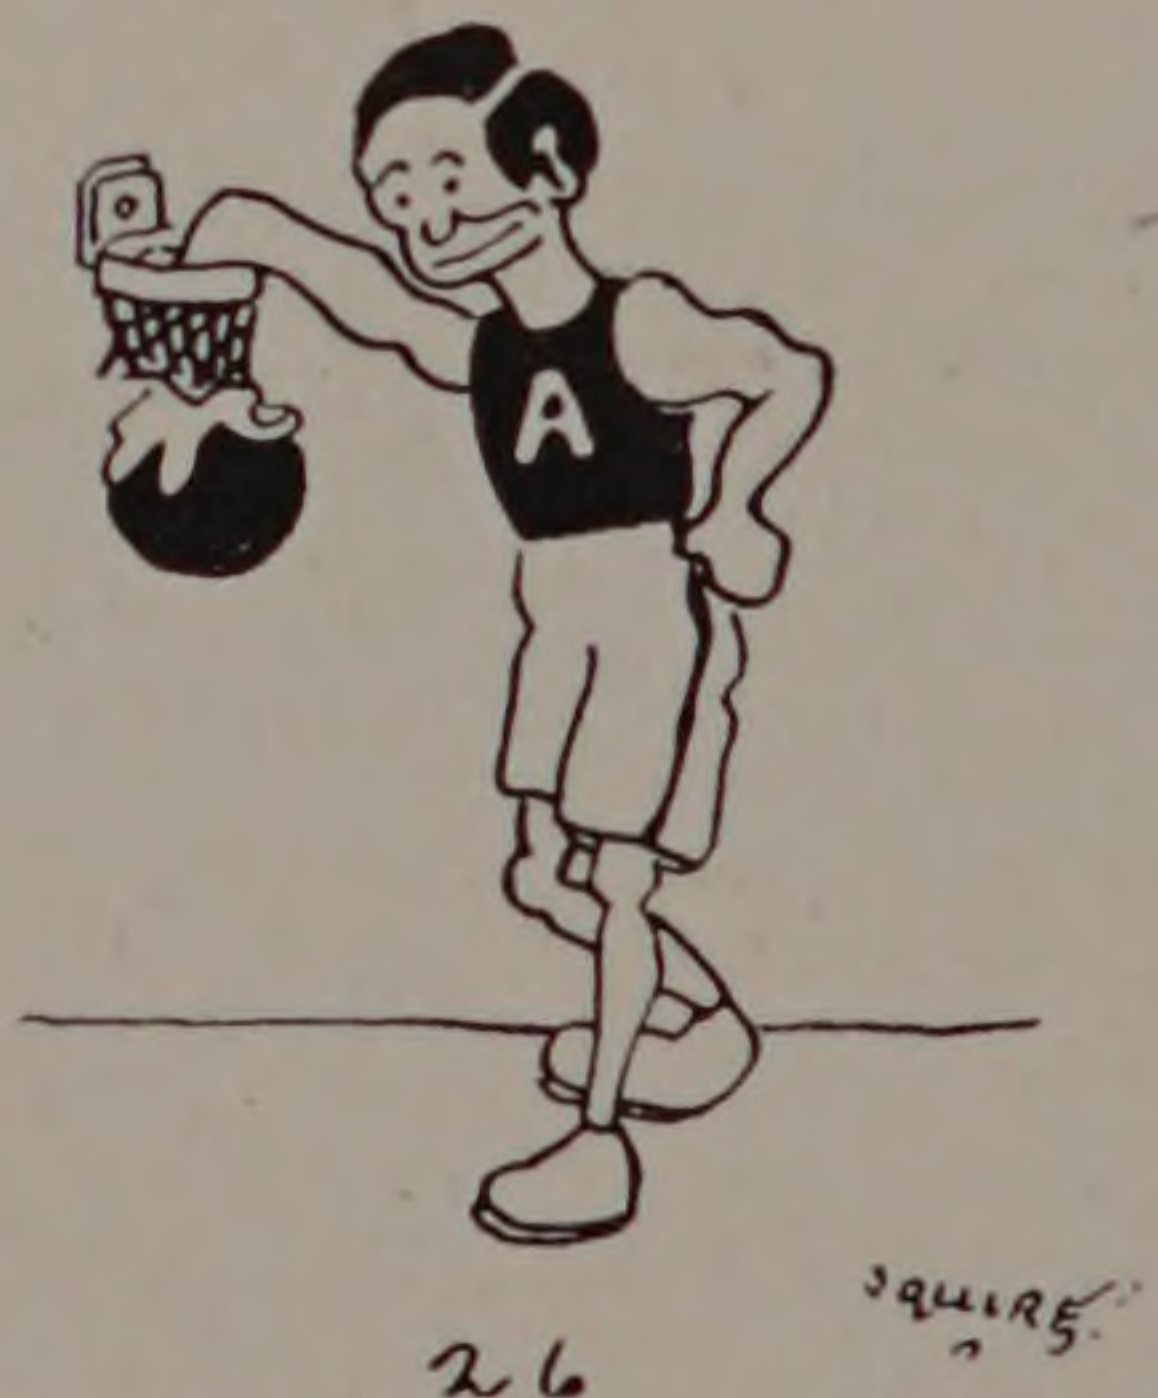

Jan. 26—Chemical Club meets and listens to talk on "Celluloid." In the evening the first team win from the Elgin Y. M. C. A. and second team loses. Academy reinstated.

Jan. 27—Engineering Society elect officers. Decided to have its scope broad and including all branches of engineering. All officers, but one, are mechanicals. Juniors and Seniors again win at bowling.

Jan. 28—Freshman Class meeting. All promise to be good if they can go to town for pictures.

Jan. 29—Freshman dance at Rosalie. Big crowd and class treasurer is not called upon.

Jan. 30—Sophs and Freshies battle for tail-end honors in bowling tournament. Seniors win from Juniors and so a tie results for first place. "Jimmy" Peebles averages $207\frac{1}{3}$.