

March 14—Heavy snowstorm. Gaylor soils his hands.

March 15—Iroquois and Baltimore fires discussed from an underwriter's view point by Mr. Merrill, of the Chicago Underwriters Assn.

March 16—Keith tells a good joke.

March 17—"Brite and fare." Morrison's bluff works. Byrne, McBurney, Flanagan, Murphy, Kilkenny and others excused early.

March 18—Radical dance at the Colonial Club enjoyed by 175 couples. Zuckerman entertains a small party after dance.

March 21—Houghton wakes up long enough to talk back.

March 22—Spring really in evidence. Baseball candidates called together.

March 23—Ex's begin. Frank and "Billy" carry chairs to the top floor. Pres. Humphreys, of Stevens' Institute, talks to College on the "Business Side of Engineering."

March 24—Worse and more of it.

March 25—Ditto. A quartette entertains in main hall and also in "gymn." History "exam." benefited.

March 26—Morris becomes a papa. Nine pounds.

March 27—Sunday—A good day to stop.