

TELL ME

where you are going—and when—and I will tell you what the rate will be, when you will reach your destination,
and why you should use
the Burlington Route.

No matter where you are going west of Chicago, Peoria
or St. Louis your ticket should read "via the Burlington."

Indians of the Southwest

Where they live and how to get there—their homes, handicraft and ceremonies—an intensely interesting book of more than two hundred pages—written by Geo. A. Dorsey, Ph.D., Curator of Anthropology, Field Columbian Museum, an authority on the "Amerind"—profusely illustrated with half-tones from special photos—handsome cover in colors—sent anywhere on receipt of fifty cents—valuable for schoolroom or library. Address Geo. T. Nicholson, 1118 Railway Exchange, Chicago.

Take the Grand Canyon
Home with you!

A Souvenir of Earth's Greatest Wonder in the form of book or picture will keep its beauties constantly before you. For fifty cents we will send the season's novelty, a handsomely colored view of the Canyon, uniquely mounted to reproduce its marvelous tints. Or, for same price, a Grand Canyon book of 128 pages, 93 fine illustrations, cover in colors; articles by many noted authors and travelers. Worthy a place in any library. Address Geo. T. Nicholson, 1118 Railway Exchange, Chicago.
