

An illustration of a man in a vest and shirt operating a large printing press. The press has a large flywheel and various mechanical components. The man is looking down at the paper being processed.

The Printing of an Annual is a work of art, requiring large facilities with skilled workmen in every department.

The production of this book represents our ability to execute this and work of similar character and excellence with intelligence and dispatch.

P. F. Pettibone & Company

High-Class Printers, Binders and Engravers

Chicago

Engraving Department

We have ample facilities for the execution of Engraved College and Fraternity Invitations, Announcements, Programs and everything needed in Fine Stationery.