

The Senior Radics

In College

H. C. DAVIES
E. H. ELLETT, JR.
A. HAYDEN, JR.
J. HAYDEN
B. C. HOOPER

A. A. KELKENNEY
C. E. KILGORE
G. S. LAUBACH
C. U. SMITH
L. B. SMITH

J. L. SCHMIDT
M. THOMPSON
T. WACHS
J. T. WALBRIDGE

Out of College

L. W. BANGS
G. FLANAGAN
W. F. HEBARD

W. HEWITT
J. N. NIND, JR.
W. E. SCHERMERHORN

H. R. SHEPHERD

The Naught-seven Radics are not dead yet despite the many and frequent calamities to the class. We look back upon our college days as four short but happy years.

We started this year with all of last year's members but one, the illustrious "Weedy" Hebard, scholar and financier. "Hans" Schmidt and "Ted" Ellett were promoted to our ranks from those of the '06 Radics.

Many pleasant evenings have been spent at the homes of the members. Among those to whom we are indebted for these enjoyable times are Hooper, C. U. Smith, Kilgore, Walbridge, Wachs, A. Hayden, Jr., Davies, Ellett, and J. Hayden, whose homes were so kindly turned over to us upon numerous occasions. A banquet was held in December at the Boston Oyster House, which every member attended and pronounced a great success.