
THE INTEGRAL 1907

“Chesty” Heyn now sports a pipe with a hog’s head front. Don’t the two faces go well together?

F. L. Thompson was discovered at a dance some time ago. Yea, verily, the ’08 Fire Protects are becoming corrupted.

Did you ever see Chatain’s shoes? Regular warships, but necessary to preserve equilibrium. However, he has been depressed lately and is now only six feet two inches high.

Master Arthur G. Geist has developed a smile which we can recommend to be the best on the market, as it surpasses even the celebrated Quaker Oats variety shown below.

Sidney James has at last shown signs of some day developing into an engineer. He was heard to say “D—” with the accent on the entire word.
