

1906

- December 5. Standard Oil doing a big business at midnight; exams ten days off.
- December 6. The senior dance committee have money to burn.
- December 7. Last day for physics lab.; everybody busy; senior dance, a grand success.
- December 10. Physics lab reports appear in numbers.
- December 11. We all get jobs, selling toys, etc., for holidays.
- December 12. A few strange faces noticed in the halls; final exams start.
- December 13. Botteron gets instructions to put his drawing in the sink and turn on the water.
- December 22. Mid-winter banquet and business meeting of the Alumni Association at the Grand Pacific; Fulcrum made the official organ of the association.