

T. F. Cornell, Instructor in the Gymnasium

which a good team could be formed in the future than as a failure in the past, and are ready to support it with increasing loyalty. Ellett is the only one of the team lost by graduation, and with a number of last year's academy track team, together with a larger number of freshmen and sophomores interested in track work than have ever been at Armour before, we are confident that the coming spring will see the best track team wearing the yellow and black that has ever been gathered at A. I. T.
