

The remarkable fact that so great an institution has become established in so short a time, renders it all the more fitting as a monument to the sublime integrity, the grandeur of character and the generosity of its founder, Philip D. Armour.

Philip D. Armour