Monroe Adney Smith, alias "Ma," Adenoid, "Prof," etc. To look at him does not signify much except that he is slightly bald. "Ma" by the way is "father" to the most original "Kickurpajamas Togo."

Sort of odd, isn't, when this gentleman who seems to have come into the world with calculus at his fingers tips means to be a chemical engineer. Frank is a quiet, unassuming mortal, who is just as human and likeable as the best friend you ever had.

"Tommy" is one of the biggest society men at Armour. He has never missed a dance or party yet, and still he is Tau Bet material. He started his college course at Chicago University, but thank goodness he came to Armour, where he immediately "made" every local society.
