

THE · 1910 · INTEGRAL

The club rooms are used for the meetings of some of the societies at the Institute as well as by Chapin Club itself. The club rooms make a good place for the students to drop in for a smoke between classes. Many lasting friendships are made there and after a short time in the company of his fellow students in the club, a man can go to class feeling rested and fit for work.

In the billiard tournament held in the Chapin Club the first semester, Mr. Strawbridge carried off the honors as champion. He lost the first game, being defeated by Mr. Ahearn, but he played very close games with the rest of his opponents and in the finals defeated Mr. Pfaelzer by a score of 50 to 43. Those who competed in the tournament were: Mr. Moyses, Mr. McCague, Mr. Pasmanski, Mr. Peiser, Mr. Hall, Mr. Brandt, Mr. Sotz, Mr. Allen, and Mr. Strawbridge. The playing throughout was exceptionally fine, and the games were very close.

Mr. Peiser carried off the honors of the three-cushion tournament. Mr. Peiser defeated Mr. Strawbridge, Mr. Pfaelzer, Mr. Sotz, Mr. Ahern, and Mr. Pasimanski after many hotly contested games.

"Borrowing is the mother of trouble."