

BASEBALL BANQUETS

May 28th, 1909.

Bismarck Hotel.

Coach Smart presided at the banquet and his ready wit enlivened the festivities and put everyone present in a humor which attends a pleasant evening. "Juice Jens," the famed pinch hitter, was chosen to guide the destiny of the 1910 team. After the repast a number of short speeches were made and then the assembled company adjourned to the Garrick theatre.

TAU BETA PI

November 5th., 1909.

Great Northern Hotel.

Tau Beta Pi held its fall initiation and Banquet on the evening of November 5th. The local chapter initiates, and the members of the Chicago Alumni Association of Tau Beta Pi, enjoyed a splendid Banquet and a good time.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY BANQUET

December 16th, 1909.

Boston Oyster House.

The Chemical Society met at the Boston Oyster House on December 16th and enjoyed a pleasant evening in the form of a banquet. After dinner speeches were made by the faculty men and also by some of the students. The banquet was such a success that a still larger one will be given in May.

"Every man has his Waterloo."