

THE · 1910 · INTEGRAL

TENT NO. 1.

NO ADMISSION EXCEPT BY COMPLIMENTARY TICKET.

EXHIBIT A

"Here we have the magniloquent W. E. Thomaso. Between his social dates he has been known to hang around the Institute in the capacity of a Senior. He is the proud owner of a "profile," the only one in this book."

EXHIBIT B.

"Lizzie Robinson, second cousin to C(a)rusoe as now almost extinct species, will execute a few snake dances of his own design.

The show begins immediately; step right in, ladies first please."

EXHIBIT C.

"This bovine creature was captured in the wilds of Australia by three fearless fire-eaters in search of a home. He has been catalogued as one of the Fenn tribe, but that is not his fault."

TENT NO. 2.

EXHIBIT A.

"This example of eloquence was found roaming the wilds of a desert isle, alone and deserted. Without a doubt, he would have joined the wild tribe of Fedincks had his name been otherwise than Emmons. He will fearlessly monkey with Stray currents and imitate a shock absorber on a volt-meter."

EXHIBIT B.

"Spaghatt the Terrible. The Raving Rival of Mark Antony or How To Get an Add. Todd the Tony has shown wonderful ability in different lines, but in his special feature of this performance, will illustrate his method of subduing salubrious Profs."

"He eats 'em alive." "Step right up."

EXHIBIT C.

Handsome HARRY. He was secured for a single performance, (to begin in five minutes), from the treasure cave of the Jolly ROGERS. When he smiles, the whole world laughs. He is worth the price of admission alone, and to each and every person attending this performance, he will present a beautifully embossed recipe for freckles.

TENT NO. 3.

EXHIBIT A.

Harverino Bones will lecture this afternoon on the benefits of his exhilarant exasperator, the first and only one to fly in stright lines. After describing a few hyperbolas on a trapezium, suspended in mid-air, Haverlino will sing that touching ballad "leave me," or "a stone in the hand gathers no moss," accompanying himself on the mouth organ.

"Nothing so easy as revenge, nothing so grand as forgiveness."