

IN FRESHMAN CHEMISTRY

Galbraith is asleep in class. Prof. Freud asks him a question.

Galbraith: (waking up) "I don't know."

Prof. Freud: "What was the question?"

Galbraith: "I couldn't hear, the train going by made too much noise."

Then "Beat It."

"I don't understand how one can learn boxing by correspondence, as this advertisement states. How can any one get practice?"

"Oh, you get your practice licking stamps."

What country is opposite us on the globe?

I don't know.

If I were to bore through the earth and went in the end, where would I come out?

Out of the hole.

A man driving a nail exercises a force of 100 pounds to the square inch when he hits the head of the nail and a 1,000,000 pounds when he hits his thumb.

"Praise a wife, but remain a bachelor."