An Uplifting Force

It is thanks to this guardian of the lift, as our English cousins term it, that we have been saved from the waste of many thousands foot-pounds of work. This blond person, built on the architectural lines of "Jakey" Mabbs and "Gib" Emons, glories in a multitude of aliases. Some of them are "Jim," "Slim," "Cupid," "Wilfred," and "Angel-face." He answers to all of them and is always on the job.
