

To the Faculty

As the finished product of years of moulding, forging and welding, the class of 1913 takes this opportunity of expressing to the faculty heartfelt appreciation of their ability, patience and enthusiastic co-operation, and extends to them the wish that continued success and long life may ever be their portion.