

THE CLASSES

B. S. in A.

MURRAY DOUGLAS HETHERINGTON

A Regional Bank. (Provided for by the new Currency Bill.)

Born December 8, 1892, at Chicago, Illinois.

Armour Scientific Academy.

Atelier; Alpha Delta Tau; Treasurer Atelier, '12-'13.

Murray is about the finished product in design and can work a whole week without eating or sleeping. Originator of the midnight pajama party in Beverly Hills.

JOSEPH CHARLES WRIGHT

Point of Governmental Control at the Isthmus of Panama.

Born August 19, 1892, at Chicago, Illinois.

South Bend, Indiana, High School, '10.

Delta Tau Delta; Atelier; Junior Play; Architects Play.

"Julian Eltinge's" only rival made a most charming lady in both the Junior and the Architect's plays. Off the stage also, Wright is said to be quite an entertainer.

CLARENCE SCHMIDT

A Suburban Residence.

Born October 13, 1891, at Chicago, Illinois.

Oregon Agricultural College.

Atelier.

A haunter of the basement corridors. His pet ambition is to build a Museum of Art for the city of Portland, Oregon. Some ambition! But you never can tell.

ARTHUR G. ELIEL

Terminal Station for a Great Railroad.

Born July 16, 1893, at LaSalle, Illinois.

Lake View High School, Chicago, '10.

Tau Beta Pi; Atelier; Class Basketball, '10.

What would the Senior drafting room be without "Artie's" singing and all around cheerfulness. As a designer he is one of the leaders, and his hard work and honesty have been an inspiration to all of us.

ARCHIBALD WILLIAM MORROW

Born February 29, 1884, at Terre Haute, Indiana.

Indianapolis Manual Training High School.

"Paw" Morrow, the oldest Senior architect, has no use for the tango, but is deeply interested in color schemes. He hopes to make good on his Celtic courage and the lightning speed with which he burns the tracing paper.
