

THE CLASSES

1916 also distinguished herself in other lines of endeavor. G. Laurence Bolte, manager of the Mandolin Club, put over some concert, while McHugh was Managing Editor of a good "Fulcrum." But in addition to this, Maurice Wilcox, is the golf champion of Armour Institute.

A fine record, so far, you will agree, and we leave only to return as Juniors with far greater accomplishments to perform.

THE DAILY QUIZ

EDITORIAL.

We agree with Gen. Sherman and remark "Quiz is hell."

FICTION.

Books by Readers.

"How to plant a beer garden"—Beers.

Latest Books.

Saturday Eve. Roast.
Ladies Wall Paper.

Daily Fable.

Once upon a time Coles came to school with the Physics problems.

Please the Children.

Get your children one of Smiths' "Centrode" games.
Let the little Sons of Sophs amuse themselves finding Centrodes.

Experting by Our Experts.

GOLF RULE—If you strike your partner while driving, the stroke counts against him. M. L. COXWIL.

Homesick Students.

Think how you would have to be mowing the lawn or tending the furnace if you were home.

Ask Some Civil.

Carefully she surveyed the room.
(Ever hear of a bed-room transit?)