

FOREWORD

THE members of the Class of 1921 will be the first students to leave the Armour Institute of Technology on commencement day without those stirring words of farewell ringing in their ears that our deceased President Gunsaulus was wont to speak. His lips are sealed but his spirit will still carry on. In order that his great spirit might be more easily accessible we have given to the world and to the members of the Class of 1921 in particular this volume of The Cycle which has been most respectfully dedicated to his memory.

May they accept this Book and, if it helps in the least measure to keep aloft the memory of him who has passed from amongst us, we shall have accomplished one of our greatest purposes.
