

HERBERT F. SCHRIEBER

Born April 1, 1895, Elmhurst, Illinois.
Elmhurst High School.

"Design and Construction of a Magnetic Absorption Dynamometer."

H. K. N.; A. I. E. E.

Herbert is one of the few who have courage to travel out to Elmhurst and back every day. He knows by this time every girl who rides the Northwestern between Wheaton and Oak Park. Herbert would have graduated two years ago if he did not take time to help run the A. E. F. for several months.

DAVID K. MURAMOTO

Born July 4, 1888, Yamaguchi, Ken, Japan.

Parks Commercial School, Denver, Colo., and Y. M. C. A. Day School, Chicago.

"Commercial Illumination."

Another one of your Japanese friends who is returning to the land of the rising sun to show the Nipponese how to illuminate their houses after the sun goes down.
