

NORMAN J. SCHLOSSMAN.

Born March 13, 1901; Chicago, Ill.
Hyde Park High School.

"Design of a Great Non-Orthodox Synagogue."

Ohr; Scarab; A. A. S.; Art Editor of Cycle, 1920.

We expect great things of Norman on his thesis. We have hopes of seeing his Synagogue in masonry. Besides architectural design he has a proclivity for humorous sketches. Many of his drawings both serious and comical appear in last year's Cycle of which volume he was Art Editor.

AUGUST J. SCHOENNING.

Born January 29, 1898; Racine, Wis.
Racine High School.

"Design of a Great Non-Orthodox Synagogue."

A. A. S.

He's the tallest man in the Senior Class. The most enjoyable of his classes during his four years at Armour were those spent with Prof.
Wilcox. We suppose that Wilcox finally passed him because of his impressive stature.
