

The team sojourned to Michigan to play the Michigan Aggies on May 3. The hosts beat the institute players, 13 to 5. Errors accounted for eight runs.

When the Tech team played Knox College on its diamond on May 8, the latter won, 6 to 5. Armour took the lead in the first inning, but lost it in the sixth, when Knox drove Desmond from the box.

The last game on the schedule was the closest played. Beloit College beat Armour Institute, 2 to 0, on a muddy field that prevented fast baseball. It was a pitcher's battle from inning to inning.

