

The Cycle

We have not space adequate for any but a very brief description of this wonderful occasion and we can only here mention the xylophone solo and other solo and chorus "hits" of both Clubs.

Only too soon for everyone was the program concluded—the boys would have stayed till the "wee small hours" to satisfy the encore requests as evidenced by the applause BUT—Calc came on Thursday as usual and our heroes must hie themselves to rest in preparation for some of the unpleasantness that they had dispelled from the minds of all of us.

—"The climax of the myriad successes of the Combined Clubs" is right.
