

IN SUPPORT OF ATHLETICS

Come on ye folks to Armour's game ;
Let's lift its banner high.
Let's put above all else its name,
Above its battle cry,
And spread broadcast its laureled fame,
To live, and never die.

Yells never fail to cheer the boys,
To lead them in the fight,
And swell the halls with thunderous noise
To show the Armour might,
And give Athletics fighting poise
With muscles tense and tight.

Commanded by an able coach
Her teams cannot be beat ;
When foreign schools do but approach
They sense their sure defeat,
And leave accepting with reproach
The usual Armour treat.

Let nothing stop your full support
Of her athletic men ;
Be at the games, show you're a sport,
Drop both your book and pen.
Come out and cheer for 'tis import
They do their deeds again.

E're you go home be sure you've looked
To see if on the board
Another game with us is booked ;
Another victory stored ;
And then you know the goose is cooked
For schools who think they have us hooked,
For Armour is the lard.

With your support we'll always win,
In any scrape be't thick or thin,
So to the games come from now on
And do not shirk when called upon.
