

JOLIET SCHOOL OF APPLIED SCIENCE

announces

New Courses, Beginning September 1921, in:

Home Brew Engineering
Advanced Safe Cracking
The Theory of Yeggmanship
The Elements of Forgery

The following new additions to the faculty will be made in order to properly present these subjects:

PHINEAS XANTHIPPE McGLUKE.

Professor of Home Brew Engineering.
Birthplace, Back of the Yards, Chicago, Ill.
R. S. V. P., John's Hops University, 1477; Ph. D., Chicago Tech., 1807.
Author of: "Cumberland Pete, or, Forty-Three Revenue Officers Bit
the Dust"; "The Diary of a Raisin."

"NIGHTMARE JAKE" O'FLANNIGAN.

Professor of Safe Cracking.
Birthplace, Cascade, Iowa.
C. O. D., Sing Sing University, 1907; F. O. B., 1917.
Author of: "The Uses of Nitroglycerine"; "The Acetylene Torch in Practice."
Member of the "Affiliated Association of Safeblowers."

DIOGENES LIGHTFINGER.

Professor of Yeggmanship.
Birthplace, Death Valley, S. D.
P. D. Q., Joliet College, 1897.
Author of: "The Theory and Practice of Brass Knuckles"; "The Utility of the Blackjack."

REGINALD OSWALD SCRIBLER.

Professor of Forgery.
Birthplace, Zanzibar.
B. V. D., Leavenworth Tech., 1904; R. I. T., Palmer Method Institute, 1908.
Author of: "The Pen is Mightier Than the Sword."