WILLIAM S. LIPSKY

Chicago, April 26, 1898.
 Mechanical Engineering.
 Robert A. Waller High School.
 A. S. M. E.
 Radio Club.
 S. A. T. C.

Lipsky is one of our old-timers who, after having worked for a year and one-half, has done our class the honor of becoming a member. He is brim full of the pep and punch that will enable him to make a success of whatever he may choose to undertake.

MAXWELL F. MAY

Chicago, March 12, 1900.
 Mechanical Engineering.
 Englewood High School.
 Beta Phi.
 Basketball two years.
 "A" Society.
 A. S. M. E.

Max is our giant and star basketball player. When he starts down the floor after the ball he checks up very nicely with the definition of an irresistible force. Max's otherwise happy school life is marred by the fact that he lives in constant fear of a severe drubbing from Petey Broad.

Max is blessed with a sunny disposition which together with his prowess as an athlete have won for him a host of friends and admirers.
