GORDON ALEXANDER GILBERTSON

March 5, 1901.

1909 North Crawford Avenue, Chicago, Ill.
Lane Tech.

Phi Lambda Upsilon; Honor "A"; A. Ch. E. S.; A. Ch. S.; Vice-President Y. M. C. A., '20; President Y. M. C. A., '20-'21; President "A" Society, '22; Board of Athletic Control, '22; Interclass Baseball, '19; Varsity Baseball, '20-21-22; Chairman, Publicity Committee, Armour Tech. Athletic Association.

Just look at Gill and you will believe the following statement. Gilbert is forceful and aggressive and has worked hard both in and out of school. As one of our Varsity pitchers Gill can't be beat as some of the teams we have played will tell you.

In his senior year, Gill did a great deal toward "putting 'Tech' on the map," being the official dopester for the Chicago papers as well as some prep school publications. We vote him quite some scoop reporter.

WALLACE TAYLOR GRAY

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, June 6, 1901.

Chemical Engineering.

Austin High School.

Delta Tau Delta; Phi Lambda Upsilon.

A. Ch. E. S.

Freshman and Sophomore Social Committees.

Junior Marshal.

True to the traditions of the Delts, Wallace parts his hair in the middle. But that is nothing against him, as a survey of his record in school will show. It has been one of Wallace's ambitions to operate a big paper-mill. Well, here's to Wallace and may we some day find the paper we write on possesses the "W. Gray" stamp. Do you want a dancing teacher? Here is your man. Wallace is a master of this intricate art, which by no means keeps him from getting high grades in his school work.
