

ATHLETICS

EDWARD E. McLAREN, '24
(Captain and Guard)

"Eddie" was one of our shining lights this year and much credit is due him for the way in which he kept the spirits of the team up in times of defeat. "Mac" was one of the best basketball captains Armour has had in many a year. This is mainly due to the great interest he has shown in his work. Not alone was he liked by his team mates, but he also gained the respect, support, and popularity of the entire student body. As a guard, Ed was hard to beat. His keen judgment and quick thinking continually baffled his opponents and kept them from scoring points. This was McLaren's second year of basketball and at the rate he was going, he will indeed be in his prime next year.

GERHARD N. SCHUMACHER, '23
(Forward)

"Garry" as usual was the hero of the year. True to form "Garry" headed the point column and had a lead of 101 points over his nearest rival. "Shu" has an uncanny eye for the basket and the more difficult the shot, the more easily he seems to hit the basket. On the free throw line he is nearly faultless. Probably "Shu's" success lies in the fact that he has perfect control of himself both mentally and physically. Having played varsity basketball every year he was at the Institute, he has won four "A's" in basketball alone. If "Shu" has as good an eye for engineering as he had for the basket—look out for Schumacher!

ELMER A. JOHNSON, '23
(Guard)

Johnson is another old timer who has played three years of basketball at the "Tech." "Swede" played the other guard position with McLaren and at all times kept his forward out of danger from the basket. "Swede" became so efficient at guard that he attempted the role of forward on many occasions and made good. Should you have seen the ball speeding on a line with the basket from somewhere at the other end of the floor it was safe to guess that Johnson was the last man to touch the ball. This is Johnson's last year at Armour and we are all very sorry that we will not see him again in Armour togs. Good luck to you, "Swede", old boy.
