If you could have been one of those lucky ones who were at the Hotel Sherman on the night of October the twenty-fourth, you would be ready now to pay twice as much to be there again. You ask me, "What was there?" Why the Senior Class of the Armour Institute of Technology opening the Social Calender of the year with one of the most charming dances.

The Tiger, Gray, and Crystal Rooms were filled to a capacity with the youths and lasses mingled with their professors and wives, each giving his part to that beautiful ensemble. Why, man, did you ever hear "Jinks" Bryan's Collegians play? Well, they were there and not one half a tone below par.

When they told me it was time to go I would not believe them, and said surely that there must be an error.
