

HUMOR

THE "ARCH" SKYWARD PLODS HIS WEARY WAY.

ACCURACY

Stranger: "How many machines pass here in a day?"

Farmer: "I couldn't tell you exactly."

Stranger: "Well, about how many?"

Farmer: "It all depends."

Stranger: "Well on the average."

Farmer: "Well, stranger, the average varies."

Inquiring Reporter: "How many years can you live without a brain?"

Student, 33rd and Federal: "I don't know. How old are you?"

Prof. Miser: "How much time did you put in on this work?"

Frosh: "One hour railroad time."

P. M.: "What do you mean?"

F.: "That is, including stops and delays."

DAD KNOWS

"Pa what does it mean here by 'diplomatic phraseology'?"

"My son, if you tell a girl that time stands still while you gaze into her eyes, that's diplomacy. But if you tell her that her face would stop a clock, you're in for it."

BAD AND WORSE

A man rushed into a tobacco store.

"This cigar you sold me," he said, "it's—it's simply frightful."

"Well, you needn't complain," said the tobacconist. "You only got one. I've got thousands of them."

ALL FIXED

Husband: "My dear, these seeds you've ordered won't flower until the second summer."

Wife: "Oh, that's quite all right. This is last summer's catalog."
