Excerpts from "Her" Diary

May 15th.

Dear Diary:

Went to the Junior Prom last night with Les. It sure was one grand and glorious affair.

"Les," you know, is chairman of the Junior Social Committee and when he chose the Belden-Stratford Hotel for the only formal dance of the school year, he surely knew what he was doing.

The music by Van was so invigorating and left such an impression on me that I could hardly stop thinking about it and get to sleep for hours after I got home.

Well, I'll have to say au-revoir until tomorrow as I am going to Circus Day now.

Dotty.
