On Friday evening, April 29th, the members of the honor fraternities congregated at the Ambassador Hotel, with their guests, for the annual Inter-Honorary dance.

"Jimmie" Green and his committee did nobly in selecting such a desirable orchestra, because Van and his boys with old Les' "whangin away as the old banjo" kept the dancers under a spell during the entire evening. As is usually the case with all good affairs, the evening passed all too quickly and it was a rather unwilling group that left the floor when the last sweet strains of "Home Sweet Home" died away.

Representatives were present from the following fraternities: Tau Beta Pi, Chi Epsilon, Pi Tau Sigma, Phi Lambda Upsilon, Eta Kappa Nu, Salamander, Scarab, Sphinx, and Pi Nu Epsilon.
